

Dr. Llewellyn Powell Receives Enrichment Award

Congratulations to Dr. Llewellyn Powell for receiving the John S. Diggs Nelson Faculty Enrichment Award from the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry. The award is presented to three faculty members per year to recognize their dedication to teaching dentistry and assuring the graduates of the college are competent in meeting the oral health needs of Tennessee and the nation.

Dr. Powell is currently an Associate Professor of Operative Dentistry and Fixed Prosthodontics in the Department of Restorative Dentistry at the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry. He is a 1986 graduate of the University of Mississippi and participated in the 1985 ADA/DENTSPLY Student Clinician Research Program.
